HUNTINGTON
HIGH SCHOOL
Huntington, Indiana

This is Huntington High School...

As eoch senior left Huntington High this yeor he took with him o permonent reminder of his high school doys — his closs ring. So through this ring with the HHS crest mounted on it, we hove ottempted to record for you the story of the yeor ond o few memories of the mony contributions our school hos mode to eoch of us who hove studied within her wolls.

To exploin the crest: the torch symbolizes the knowledge HHS hos so foithfully taught us. The triongle stonds for strength ond rigidity of body encouroged through the othletic progrom. Embodying the people who ore the school is the building. The ring itself represents the unceasing friendships cultivoted in supervised octivities.

Thus, os you exomine your Modulus for 1962, we hope thot it will not only provide entertoinment now, but thot it will owoken dormont memories in future yeors.

Miss Florence Weiford

We students express our thanks and appreciation for your many years of dedicated service to Huntington High School.

the Things WE do

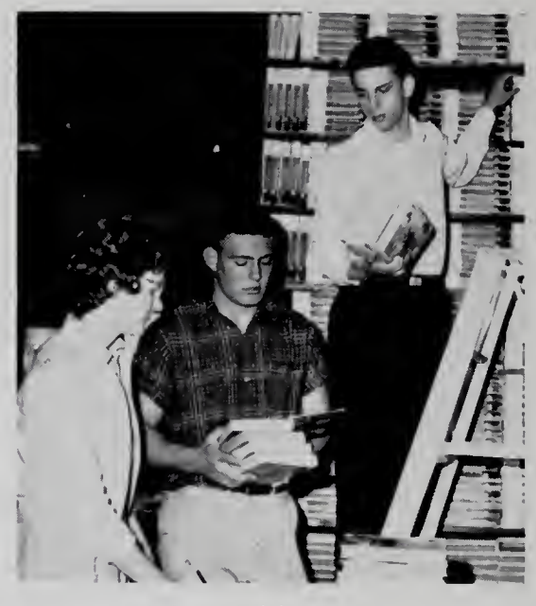
Renting books is a tiresome task.



Great strength is needed here.

These Things Make Up the School Year . . .

We like the variety included.

The things we do from September to the last day of school in May are as varied as they are numerous. We rent books, study, compete on the playing field, share our ideas, and go to parties. What is more, we relax at the Swing Inn and in the Rec. Room, dress up for formal dances, and receive rewards for our efforts and achievements. Then in May, to climax what seems an already perfect year, those of us who are seniors graduate into the adult world.

Lunchtime is a welcome relief from the books.

That play must have been a surprise!

Was this pased?

Seniars begin the lang, lang walk.

Huge grapes, flower garlands, and the Grecian backdrop set the scene for "Vintage '61" as 136 couples danced to music by John Craig and his Melody Men.

Looking back over the past four years at Huntington High, the seniors remember many impressive experiences. Trading class rings, selling goodies junior year, choosing class colors and motto, buying a class gift, dancing at the prom, and receiving diplomas are the experiences the seniors remember best. It has been experiences such as these that have made life at Huntington High School exciting as well as educational.

"Riddle Me Riches" Reveals Acting Talents

Capacity crowd testifies to our success

The hilarious results of winning a radio program's contest made this year's Senior Play, "Riddle Me Riches", by Anne Ferring Weatherly, a "standing room only" success.

Chuck submits his name to a radio quiz program, "Riddle Me Riches"; and by successfully encouraging his father, Thomas Taylor, to solve the riddle, he answers it correctly. Now the fun begins, for Chuck's mother, Esther, wins a maid, Hilda Sorenson, for an entire year. Also, Marla Kay, a beautiful movie star, comes to visit the family. When Chuck's sister, Patty, loses her boy friend, Bob, and Thomas Taylor his job, confusion increases the comedy. All these situations combined to make the 1962 Senior Play a financial success.

Directing the cast were Mrs. Bea Patterson, Mr. Richard Goshorn, and Mr. Charles Kaufman.

Administration Builds

Student Body of Huntington High School

Dear Students:

On every personnel questionnaire there appears a common word, aptitude. This has reference to attitude toward work, people, superiors, parents, and our American way of life. Fortunately, the great majority of our student body have acquired proper attitudes; but unfortunately, there are a few who fall short. I feel that we should all take a good look at our attitudes as they are so vital to us. Our contribution to society and our future happiness are so dependent upon proper attitudes. The seniors who leave us this year will find that the going will be much smoother if they possess the proper attitude.

I would like to congratulate the teachers and students on a fine school year. I am hoping we can make next year even better.

Sincerely yours,

Phil N. Eskew

English Stresses Effective Communication

Mrs. Juanita Young
English, Journalism

Huntington High's English department is fortunate to have a well-planned program; first semester grammar and second semester literature make up the year. Vocabulary study is stressed throughout. A special speech course is combined with the sophomore English classes. In the junior year students may choose general English, or those planning to go to college may take a special course in composition and American Literature. Senior composition and English Literature are also offered as elective subjects for college-bound pupils. Upon completion of the four year English program, students are well prepared for the future.

Emily ond Mrs. Young make room for onother picture in the dummy.

Each person is glad to receive his copy of the yearbook, but perhaps he does not realize the work required to produce it.

Mrs. Juanita Young, faculty advisor, was always at hand to help staff members solve their many difficulties. She assisted Emily Carlson, editor-in-chief, in planning the pictures, directing the staff, and working to meet deadlines.

Carol Kriegbaum, copy editor, was responsible for handing out copy assignments to copy writers. John Repp, sports editor, relieved parts of Carol's responsibilities by keeping a record of sports activities. He also proofed the sports copy as it came in.

The business manager, Barbara Eskew, handled efficiently the bookkeeping department. Pam Perrigo and Sue Slater, co-subscription managers, also kept books. They recorded the number of yearbooks sold or subscribed to and the amount of money due for each.

Ad solicitors, directed by managers Ellen Campbell and Doug LeMaster, collected ads to finance this book.

Allan Miller, assisted by Lee Trainer, took, developed and printed most of our many pictures.

Thus, all of these people worked toward the common goal of completing the Modulus on time. They spent nine months taking pictures, writing copy, selling subscriptions, soliciting ads and meeting deadlines. Now at last they can present the Modulus for 1962.

Since the Huntington branch of the American Field Service was installed in 1951, many fine foreign students have visited our school and community. Khosrow Fatemi from Iran was no exception. He certainly represented his country well, for he won the admiration of everyone he met. Khosrow gave many speeches to different civic organizations, made even more friends and entertained these friends with his wonderful sense of humor. The Clifford Terry family of 310 Randolph Street adopted "Khos" for the 1961-1962 school year.

Last summer Huntington did not send a student abroad, but the school hopes to do so in the near future. Also, HHS students enjoyed International Day when students from many lands visited the school.

The main purpose of the Student Council is to solve certain problems which arise at Huntington High School. One of the problems faced by the council this year was the need for a place to study during the noon hour. In addition to educational programs, WVSH broadcast Viking football and basketball games and a special school and sports news program. Four panel discussions on Communism and a radio play about voting were produced by seniors Dick Warner and Bob Slater under the direction of Mr. Dale Ware.

This year the station was operated by eighteen engineers and fourteen announcers. Senior pins were presented to Terry Harrell, senior sports announcer, and to engineers Dick Warner, Douglas LeMaster and Bob Slater.

Cheering Block Spurs Vikings on to Victory

One hundred and fifty-four loudly cheering girls, decked in their bright red and black shirts, led the 1962 Viking basketball squad on to many victories during the HHS hardwood season. The Cheering Block, composed of freshman, sophomore, ond senior girls, added color, enthusiosm, and loyal backing to each home basketball game and to some out-of-town contests.

The Block was very capably led by Miss Carolyn Reynolds and the Varsity Cheerleaders—Penny Gloss, Mary Boker, Connie Shafer and Pat Altman. Weekly Wednesday afternoon meetings at the Community Gymnasium were used to proctice new yells, songs, and spelling formations. The hard work of oll who participated in the 1962 Cheering Block will long be remembered and appreciated by HHS basketball fans and players.

Choir Performs Admirably

This year the choir represented the utmost in musical entertainment and enjoyment for all who heard its performances. Under the direction of Cloyde Slater, the sixty members presented many programs of several types of music: spiritual, secular and jazz. Selections for each concert were adapted to the varied musical tastes of the different audiences.

In previous years Mr. Slater entered only the girl's sextette in the regional vocal contest at Ft. Wayne. This year, however, Huntington High was represented by mixed groups and soloists. Of these entries, two went to the state contest. Richard Landis received a rating of excellent for his solo and joined Nancy Rodda, Jo Burkholder, Jane West, and Richard Reahm to receive a superior award for their madrigal.

Band Entertains Enthusiastic Audiences

The Huntington High School Band, under the direction of Delmar Weesner and Norris Huston, completed another successful year. During the football season the band presented a number of interesting and entertaining shows, several of which featured the Vikettes — Leslie Brock, Emajane Edmonds, Karen Frederick, Patti Goodrich, Vicki Kramer, and Shirley Shrock. This year the drum majors were Don Draper and Tim Hoke.

Several new instruments were purchased for the band this year. Also, a new feature was added to the instrumental curriculum of the music department — a dance band. Professional dance bands consist of five saxophones, five trumpets, five trombones, piano, drums, and string bass. Because of a lack of instrumentation, the dance band consisted of only four trumpets, one trombone, five saxophones, a sousaphone, piano and drums.

The concert band participated in the Class A division of the state band contest at New Haven. Also, the band presented its annual spring concert which was well received. Thus ended another year of enjoyment and outstanding achievement.

Officers for this year were Carol Paoletto, president; Bill Goshorn, vice-president; Mary Ware, secretary; and Emily Carlson, treasurer.

The Bryn Tarw Trio — piano, drums and trumpet — was composed of Ken Kaylor, Charles Dinkler and Jerry Lewis. All excellent musicians, the trio spent long hours and much money to make their combo a success. Some of their appearances included a record hop, noon auditorium shows and spring parties. These efforts were rewarded with a warm response from both students and citizens of the community.

Basketball Ushers In

Cooch Straight wonders if we can do it again.

Huntington's Vikings, under second year mentor Robert Straight, swept to a successful campaign. The Vikes started slowly but came on with a rush to close out with a highly respectable record.

Victories for the Vikes this year came over such outstanding powers as Logansport, Bluffton and Peru. Stellar performances were handed in by almost every Norseman during the season.

A young ballclub, the Vikings should be able to do even better next year. A preview of their success was presented in tournament play.

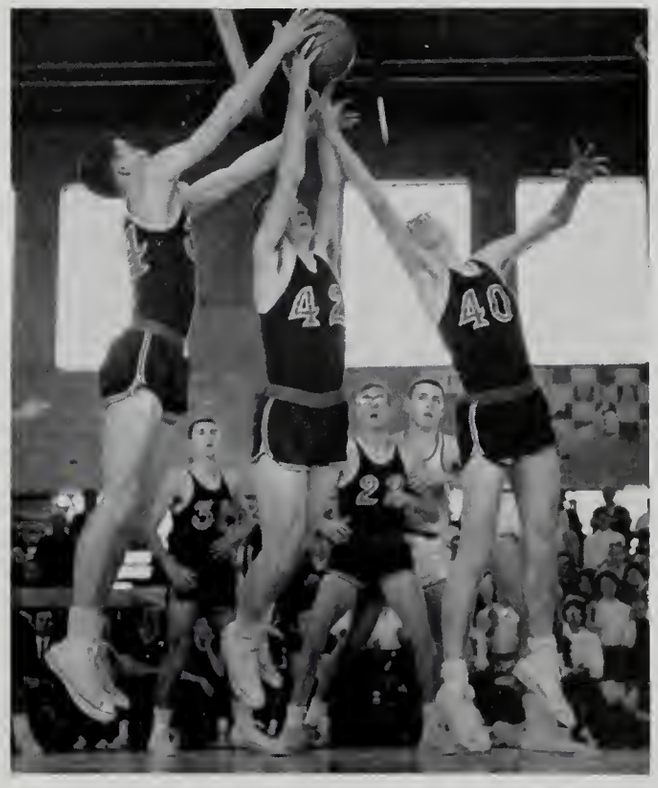
The Vikings entered the Huntington Sectional with the impressive record of 14 wins and 6 losses. The Vikings first breezed by Lancaster by a score of 75 to 58. In the second game the Vikes again romped over their opponents, Union, 75 to 46. The third game turned out to be a much easier victory than expected. HHS swamped Roanoke 71 to 47. During the final game, in the last period, Mr. Straight's coaching and his lucky yellow shirt gave the Norsemen a close 62-58 decision over Huntington Catholic. Bob Minniear finished as top scorer of the sectional with 86 points, the third highest total in the history of sectional play.



Hey fellas! Don't fight — you're on the some side.

Scrappy Vikes Take Regional

With an inspired team, the best coach, one yellow shirt, and a sectional championship, the mighty Vikings went to Marion for the regional. In the first game the Vikes sped past Pennville, 61 to 39. But during the second game something almost slipped. At the end of the first period Huntington was trailing 17 to 7. Then came the second quarter, and the points rolled in. With an untouchable offence and an impassable defence, the Vikes totaled 29 points in the second quarter. Taking it from there, the Norsemen won, 69 to 58.

Fans rejoice after another Viking victory.

Scyldings and Freshmen Show Promise

The season began rother inouspiciously for this yeor's Scylding squad when they lost their first four games. In time, however, the team began to pick up enough momentum to overcome this deficit. The yeor-end tolly showed thot they hod eorned the creditable record of 10 wins and 8 losses.

The Freshmon bosketboll team brought more othletic glories to HHS as they compiled their seoson record of 10 wins ond only 3 losses. The team, cooched by Mr. Naab and Mr. Poer, showed fine spirit, ond we expect them to provide us with many exciting moments during their high school coreers.

Crown Queen Connie

The Viking track team under Coach Jerry Young posted its best season in school history. It placed third in the CIC meet; won the sectional; sent two relay teams and Van Bailey, Jerry Dimond, Dave Reeves, and Paul Rider to the regional; and advanced Rider to the state.

Van Bailey, CIC's most valuable trackster, ran a 50.7 quarter; Phil Bieghler vaulted 11-6 1/2; Dave Reeves shot putted 51-1 3/4; and Rider ran a 4:29.2 mile to set or tie four new school records.

On to a Viking victory.

Baseball Team Can Hold Their Own

Again, as for the post two years, the Vikings have been plagued with bad weother ond bod luck. Weother pastpaned many af their games, and they finished with o 1 and 9 season. The lane win came when the Vikes upset Blufftan 13-5.

This belaw-overage season wos nat o clear indicatian of the patentiality of the Viking squod. Mony of the gomes were decided by anly ane ar two runs. Another hindrance was their lock of experience.

However, with an underclassmen-studded line-up, the Vikes shauld be able to hold their own in the future.

Tennis Team Dishes Out Tough Opposition

Coach Charles Kaufman's tennis team had its best season on record in 1962. In addition to tying for the conference championship, they finished the season with a 9 and 4 record. The team's two graduating seniors, Don Draper and Bob Ross, carried much of the load. Don won the conference singles championship, and Bob, as number two man, was an important team member. Returning to defend the championship will be Roger Ross, Jerome Herrberg, Mike Seashols, Bill Goshorn, Dave Kroot, Doug Hammel, and Wayne Friar.

Girls Display Athletic Ability

The girls' athletic department, under the direction af Miss Ruth Luther, participated in intramural as well os interschalastic campetitian.
